49 Brigstocke Terrace, Ryde, Isle Of Wight, PO33 2PD

£225,000

This 78sqm first floor apartment is part of a substantial and quite imposing grade II listed building . Brigstocke Terrace is rumoured to have originally been built as gentleman's residence in the early nineteenth century and its elevated 'hillside' position makes this attractive building not only part of our heritage but a defining presence within our landscape. The apartment itself enjoys quite spectacular sea views including Ryde Pier, the Spinnaker Tower and passing ships as they head for the English Channel or mainland ports. High ceilings help increase the feeling of space to the already generous main lounge/diner and tall windows ensure there is plenty of natural light. The same applies in the stylish modern kitchen where the spectacular views are hard to avoid. There are two bedrooms on the sunny south side leaving the other rooms on the seaward facing side. Ornamental balconies adorn the exterior of all the wonderfully tall windows which are striking features of this handsome building. This apartment building sits adjacent to the local tennis club and Ryde's thriving town centre is a short walk away and host to a wealth of amenities including shops, restaurants, a post office and a supermarket. Sandy beaches and The Esplanade are within easy reach as are local travel facilities and mainland ferry & hovercraft connections. Whether you are looking for a convenient main residence, a holiday home or pied-a-terre this apartment should be high on your list!
