£220,000

A classic Victorian semi detached town house situated within the very heart of this coastal town of Ryde. It conveniently sits a matter of yards away from the bustling town centre making for a hugely convenient lifestyle. Ryde offers a wealth of individual shops, services and transport options and these will all be at your disposal. If you are moving from more outlying areas where shops are sparse or would ideally like to have the freedom to walk to local facilities then this home is perfectly placed for you. The ground floor layout has two adjoining reception rooms, a kitchen to the rear and a handy shower room with w.c. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms to choose from. At 44ft in length the pretty west facing lawn garden ensures plenty of sun late in to the day. There is on-street parking in Mount Street and roughly 100 hundreds away is the closest Council Car Park. Buses pass at the end of the road and Ryde St John's will be your nearest train station. There are schools to suit all ages in Ryde and all of these are a short drive away at most. Being coastal the town is well known for its miles of sandy beaches and waterside facilities including its iconic pier.
