£354,000

This attractive DETACHED home is smartly presented and comes with an array of welcomed mod cons. The double glazed conservatory offers not just another reception room but the perfect spot to sit and enjoy the 60ft rear garden and patio. There are two main reception rooms, a bay window lounge with feature fireplace and a separate formal dining room adjacent to the modern kitchen. Upstairs and there are 3 bedrooms to choose from and a bathroom for all to use. There is some handy storage under the stairs and a cloakroom w.c providing the all important ground floor second toilet. The smart brick paved frontage is designed to offer separate gated parking spaces for two vehicles so they can come and go independently. The house is positioned in Elmfield, a popular suburb of Ryde towards the eastern reaches of the town. Elmfield has a real community feel and outside of the main town of Ryde has the best consolidation of facilities including convenience stores, petrol stations, a sub post office, a public house, a major supermarket and several main bus routes. There are various schools in the area within walking distance for the most part and just a short bus/car journey to others. This location is fortunate to have Ryde's sandy beaches just a 10 minute walk or a brief cycle/car journey away. Closer still are the leafy environs of Appley Park, a well kept grassed and tree lined park offering a traffic-free and particularly pleasant walk down to Appley Beach.
