A pretty town cottage the briefest of walks from the town centre shops and services. As such this well-placed home offers tremendous convenience for the dedicated townie. The attractive facade conceals a classic layout of two reception rooms at ground floor with the kitchen to the rear and the cloakroom w.c off the rear lobby. Upstairs and there are two comfortable bedrooms and a bathroom for all to use. A modest courtyard garden sits to the rear with enough space for a spot of sunbathing or a barbeque whilst to the front is the all-important parking hardstand neatly finished in stone chipped resin. There is on-street parking in Station Street and a council car park 30 yards away. The interior is well presented and exudes a particular charm which only character properties are able to. Ryde has arguably one of the best selections of retail, services and facilities found anywhere on the Island and these will be so close that it is bound to make your life that little easier. Bus routes are close by and the nearest train station will be within walking distance for most. Ryde is renowned for its miles of sandy beaches and its iconic pier which, along with its mainland passenger travel connections, is responsible for its 'gateway to the Island' moniker.
