10 Argyll Place, Ryde, PO33 3BX

£189,950

This classic Victorian semi detached town cottage is tucked away in a quieter no through traffic side road. It sits in a very central position offering a level walk to the nearby High Street and shops making for a convenient lifestyle. Ryde's extensive collection of retail shops, travel options and facilities will all be easily accessible to the residents. The nearest bus stops are found on John Street and Queen's Road connecting to neighbouring towns and villages including the Island's principal town at Newport. This pretty cottage has been well maintained over the years although is now dated internally which offers great opportunity to modernise and transform into your bespoke home. The traditional layout includes two reception rooms at ground floor leaving the kitchen, cloakroom w.c and sun lounge to the rear. Upstairs and there are up to three bedrooms and a bathroom. The main garden sits to the rear of the house facing west attracting the sun late in to the evening. There is on-street parking in the road although being so well placed for the local facilities you may find yourself using the car much less. For convenience of location coupled with scope to modernise this property makes for an exciting opportunity to purchase.
