2 Gassiot Green Road, Ryde, PO33 1FQ

£455,000

This wonderfully detailed semi detached home has an immaculate interior worthy of the most discerning of buyers. It is part of a small select cluster of equally impressive houses overlooking Gassiot Green which makes for an appealing outlook from all forward facing windows and leaves a surprisingly good view of the sea to the rear. This house was built in 2018 with striking external features paying homage to the school which once stood on this site. The stone built facade with sand brick quoins, clay peg tile roof, pointed arch casement windows and ornate ridge tiles make for a stunning and hugely characterful appearance. The contrasting interior leans towards a more contemporary finish particularly notable in the stunning kitchen/diner topped with granite work tops. The accommodation is attractively designed over two storeys with the ground floor providing a comfortable lounge with a fireplace focal point and a stylish open plan kitchen & dining space as the heart of the home. A generous utility room off the kitchen/diner makes for a helpful addition to the property. Up to the first floor and there are three double bedrooms including an en suite to choose from plus a family bathroom for all to use. The brick paved parking area to the rear offers spaces for two cars and both the patio and pathways are paved to match. It is positioned in Elmfield, a popular suburb of Ryde towards the eastern reaches of the town. Elmfield has a real community feel and outside of the main town of Ryde has the best consolidation of facilities including convenience stores, petrol stations, a sub post office, a public house, a major supermarket and several main bus routes. There are various schools in the area within walking distance for the most part and just a short bus/car journey to others.
