A note from the seller - This has been a truly great place to live — the perfect balance of convenience and tranquillity. The town centre can easily be reached by a short drive, bus ride, or leisurely walk along the Thames. In the local area, amenities are close by with some great restaurants, supermarkets, train station, gym, and climbing centre all within walking distance. The house itself feels wonderfully peaceful, with a garden sanctuary full of birds, a sunny patio and on the hottest days, plenty of shady spots to chill. It's easy to forget just how close you are to town! The garden is backed by McIlroy Park, and we love the beautiful views across Reading and the surrounding countryside. Simply a lovely spot to live!
