OWNERS' COMMENTS

What living at Ashburn has meant to me?

Space, light, life and memories - Ashburn has fulfilled all my expectations.

Space

The flow of the downstairs with a full house of guests to stay, or my family of two sons and their children, without feeling crowded or uncomfortable, as well as being able to entertain in style, both inside and outside. The use of the spacious tiled front hall to put on our walking boots and the utility room's use as a drying room for wet gear. Not to mention the joy of the meadow as a sanctuary for wildflowers, insects and birds.

Light

Even on the dullest of days, the house is bathed in light due to the large windows, dual and triple aspect in many rooms.

Life

As avid walkers, the location is perfect, conveniently near a main road with the fells on the doorstep. Views to Blake Fell and Knott Murton from the house and garden. Blake Fell and Cogra Moss are in walking distance from the house. Easy access to Cockermouth and Keswick for shopping and entertainment, the whole of the Lake District and the sea.
