About the Area

Blairgowrie is a thriving town with the High Street being the focal point having a variety of local shops including a butcher, book shop, antique and local craft and gift shops together with well-known department stores and supermarkets.

There is both primary and secondary schooling within the town. Blairgowrie also boasts its own championship golf course at Rosemount, which is considered one of the best courses in Scotland. To the North of the town is Spittal of Glenshee which has Scotland's largest ski centre.

Property Summary

Built in 1856, The Alders is a 'C' listed Victorian villa situated in the most private spot overlooking the town of Blairgowrie.

The Alders still has many of its original features with wooden shutters, high skirting boards and ornate period cornicing featuring throughout.

The property would be the ideal family home and has spacious accommodation set over 3 levels comprising: Vestibule, entrance hall, bright and spacious lounge, family room, sitting room/dining room, fully fitted 'Wren' kitchen, utility room and wet room are all located on the ground floor.

The 1st floor is accessed by a carpeted stairwell and leads a bright and spacious landing that gives access to 4 double bedrooms and a family bathroom. 2 further bedrooms are located in the attic space.

Additionally there is a large basement which could be converted into further accommodation.

This property is situated on the most private and generous sized plot with a large garden wrap around garden, outbuildings and private woodlands pertaining to the property.
