About the Area

Pitlochry is set in the heart of the beautiful Perthshire countryside and is served by a wide range of local facilities and amenities including shopping, banking, professional offices, doctor's surgery, and a community hospital.

The town remains a popular holiday destination and attractions include the fish ladder, Pitlochry festival theatre and the nearby Blair castle. There are two local distilleries in Pitlochry, the picturesque Edradour which is the smallest working distillery in Scotland and Blair Athol Distillery.

The area, which is renowned for its outstanding scenic beauty offers a wide range of recreational pursuits. These include walking and climbing with many Munros within easy reach: water sports on Lochs: golf on Pitlochry's 18-hole golf course and the many further golf courses within easy reach.

The town is bypassed by the A9 trunk route providing easy access to the North and South. The overnight Inverness to London sleeper stops in the town and link to Edinburgh.
