Overview

A most spacious, extended 4 bedroom semi detached family home set on a popular development in the village of Fremington. The village is well served with a good range of local services, supermarket with post office, primary school, Medical Centre, dentist, village inns and an ancient parish church and is within a mile of access on to the Tarka Trail a traffic free footpath/cycle path running along the river Taw between Barnstaple, 3 miles and Bideford, 7 miles with Instow 3 miles.

The property benefits from being fully double glazed, has gas fired central heating to radiators throughout and being in brick elevations requires the minimum maintenance.

The entrance door opens into the hallway with stairs to first-floor. To the left a double aspect lounge with patio doors into the rear garden. Ahead of you a refitted well-equipped kitchen with gas cooker point and arch leading to the adjoining dining room which has a French door to garden and internal door to the integral single car garage.

On the first floor, landing serving all rooms with 4 bedrooms and bathroom.
