Outside

Chulmleigh is a charming yet vibrant town set in the heart of rural Devon, serving as the hub of a warm and active community. It offers a good selection of local shops — including a butcher, bakery, dairy, newsagent, florist, and hairdresser — as well as the excellent Chulmleigh Academy, providing education for children aged 3 to 16. The town also boasts a health centre, dental surgery, Post Office, churches, library, two public houses, a community-run sports centre, and a short 18-hole golf course.

For a broader range of amenities, the market towns of South Molton to the north and Crediton to the south are easily reached. The local railway station at Eggesford, just two miles away, offers direct services between Exeter and Barnstaple, while road connections are provided via the A377 or the North Devon Link Road, accessible at South Molton. Barnstaple — North Devon's regional centre — and the Cathedral and University city of Exeter both offer an extensive range of shops, services, and leisure facilities. Tiverton, the M5 motorway at Junction 27, and Tiverton Parkway station (with fast Intercity links to London Paddington) are all within a 45-minute drive, and Exeter also benefits from an international airport.
