Situation

Woolacombe is a superb village which nestles nicely on the rugged north Devon coastline surrounded by National Trust land. Renowned for it's stunning and iconic sandy beach, which has been voted in top 10 best beaches in the world and No. 1 in the country. It's clean water is a draw for surfing enthusiasts and it now joins the likes of Malibu Beach as being a World Surf Reserve (WSR), the first UK beach to be awarded this accolade. It's miles of golden sands stretch south and merges with Putsborough Sands. It is a lively village with an array of amenities including chemist, Londis store, post office and pubs. There are restaurants, among them, Noel Corston, Michelin star.

Barricane & Combesgate beaches are close by whilst, going North, to the top of the hill, is the charming village of Morteheo. The South West Coast Path runs through the village and continues on south and north to Victorian Town of Ilfracombe. Here there are a very good range of shopping facilities and the award winning Landmark Theatre. Braunton village is just under 7 miles to the south where, close by, the further beaches at Croyde and Saunton. Here, there is also The Saunton Golf Club which has 2 Championship courses.

A further 5 miles from Braunton, is the main north Devon town of Barnstaple which has access to the M5, via The North Devon Link Road. The Tarka rail line connect to Exeter which picks up the main route to London.
