LOCAL AREA

This attractive character cottage is situated nicely, just off the centre of West Down which is a very sought after village between Braunton and Ilfracombe. The village is renowned for its excellent primary school, a well run community shop, church and public house/restaurant. There is an excellent community spirit with a good cross section of inhabitants.

The nearest beach is Woolacombe, just under 4 miles away, and recognised as one of the best in the country. In the past, it has been voted amongst the best top 20 beaches in the world. It offers a superb expanse of sandy beach, ideal for surfing. The beach merges with Putsborough Sands to the south. Ilfracombe town is to the north and offers golf course, the award winning Landmark Theatre, Damien Hirsts' 'Verity', a cinema and Tesco store. Also, there is a good range of shops and stores, primary and secondary schooling. Braunton is to the south and offers further amenities, whilst Barnstaple, the regional centre of north Devon, is just under 11 miles away. Here there are further amenities including covered shopping at Green Lanes, out of town shopping at Roundswell and a brand new leisure centre.

There is access on to The North Devon Link Road which provides a convenient route to the M5 motorway at junction 27, whilst there is the Tarka Rail Line that connects to Exeter in the south and which picks up the direct route to London.
