This delightful and individual home comes to the market in immaculate condition and is considered ideal for those looking for a spacious family home. The accommodation is arranged to offer excellent flexibility to enable the new owner to work from home or, alternatively, for a dependent relative to reside along side the family. Therefore, we thoroughly recommend a full viewing to appreciate it's adaptable nature.

The house is of traditional cavity construction with pleasing part rendered, part hung tile and part cedar cladding all under a concrete tiled roof. The rooms flow nicely with an entrance porch and hall with access to the ground floor bedroom 4 which has a shower room just off. To the front of the house is the double aspect living room, whilst a sliding door from the hall opens to the open plan kitchen and dining room. This is really well fitted and bright with double velux windows and door, from the dining room, out to the garden. There is a central island and ample worksurface space, built in double oven, 5 ring gas hob, fridge freezer and plenty of cupboards and storage. The kitchen opens to the dining room with open treat stairs to the first floor. The very useful, sperate utility room also has access to the garden. The study is off the kitchen and this could also serve as a 5th bedroom, if needed.

To the first floor are 3 bedrooms, all with built in wardrobes, cupboards or access to eaves storage. The main 2 bedrooms are double aspect with some open views and have a velux window for extra light. Bedroom 3 has 2 velux windows and access to the eaves. The family bathroom is fitted with a white 4 piece suite and a heated towel rail.

The house is approached via a long drive offering off road parking and a long garage workshop. There is further parking immediately to the front where there is a semi circular lawn and small tree. This could provide more parking if taken out. There is side access to the rear garden. This is split to 3 low levels with patio, lawn and apple trees and a further sitting area.. There is a side door to the garage. There is a very good degree of privacy and 3 lovely places to sit and BBQ, dine al fresco or just to enjoy the peace. The upper level is deigned to enjoy the sun and is easy to look after as it is laid to chippings. There is a further patio area with some built in seating. This is good space to potentially erect a home office cabin.

In all this is a superb home in a very sought after location and it is sure to impress those looking for space, comfort and ease of maintenance.
