A beautifully presented and versatile detached family home, tucked away in a peaceful cul-de-sac in the heart of the ever-popular and well-served village of Ipplepen.

This delightful property is a true credit to its current owners, offering smart, contemporary living spaces, an integral garage, driveway parking, and a well-designed, enclosed rear garden — complete with low-maintenance artificial lawn and terraced seating areas that are perfect for summer dining and entertaining.

Just a short stroll (approximately 500m) brings you to the excellent range of local amenities Ipplepen has to offer, including a primary school, health centre, convenience store, village hall, and a welcoming pub/restaurant. The village boasts a strong community spirit with numerous clubs and societies, making it an ideal setting for those seeking a vibrant yet relaxed lifestyle.

Well connected, the property lies just 4 miles from Newton Abbot and 5 miles from the historic town of Totnes — both served by regular bus services and mainline railway stations offering links to Exeter, Plymouth, and beyond.

The Accommodation:

Inside, the accommodation is arranged over two floors and includes four bedrooms (one conveniently located on the ground floor), two bathrooms, a good-sized kitchen and a spacious open-plan living area with a part-vaulted ceiling, flowing into a bright conservatory — creating a wonderful sense of space and natural light throughout.

Directions:

From Newton Abbot take the A381 Totnes Road to Ipplepen. Turn right into the village at Causeway Cross (Foredown Road). Follow the road straight through the village and then turn left opposite the Wellington Inn into Clampitt Road. Take the second left into Crokers Way.
