Offers In Excess Of £2,000,000

The elevation of this fine 4 bedroom Grade II Listed early Georgian house reveals the classical features of what is arguably the most elegant period in English architecture. Requiring modernisation, the accommodation, which is arranged over four floors has a wealth of original features and enjoys magnificent and far reaching views to the rear. Situated in a highly desirable position, being literally in the heart of Highgate Village and adjacent to the High Street, the house is also within close proximity to the area's many excellent Schools, Waterlow Park and Highgate or Archway (Northern Line) Underground Stations.
