Cambridge

Cambridge is a city on the River Cam in Eastern England, approximately 55 miles north of London and home to the prestigious University of Cambridge dating to 1209.

Cambridge is at the heart of the hi-technology which contains industries such as software and bioscience.

There are numerous restaurants and hotels, an array of shops and punting on the River Cam.

There are fast train links into London from Cambridge with a typical journey time of 45 minutes.

Location

Serviced office space is available at Vision Park, Chivers Way Compass Point, Vision Park, Histon, Cambridge and Wellington House, East Road, Petersfield, Cambridge.

Wellington House

Standing four storeys high and located in the heart of Cambridge, the glass exterior offers plenty of natural light.

Vision Park

Cambridge Vision Park is situated on the outskirts of a city renowned for its technology, science and commercial excellence.

It is within easy reach of the city centre and has the advantage of excellent links with the M11 and A14. Trains from London Kings Cross to Cambridge arrive every half-hour, with a 15-minute journey by taxi to the Vision Park. London Stansted, Heathrow and Gatwick Airports are all easily accessible from the M11 motorway link.

Cambourne

Cambourne is a new settlement and civil parish in Cambridgeshire, in the district of South Cambridgeshire.

It lies on the A428 road between Cambridge, 9 miles (14 km) to the east, and St Neots and Bedford to the west. It comprises the three villages of Great Cambourne, Lower Cambourne and Upper Cambourne. The area is close to Bourn Airfield.
