Sought after village location

GREAT PAXTON

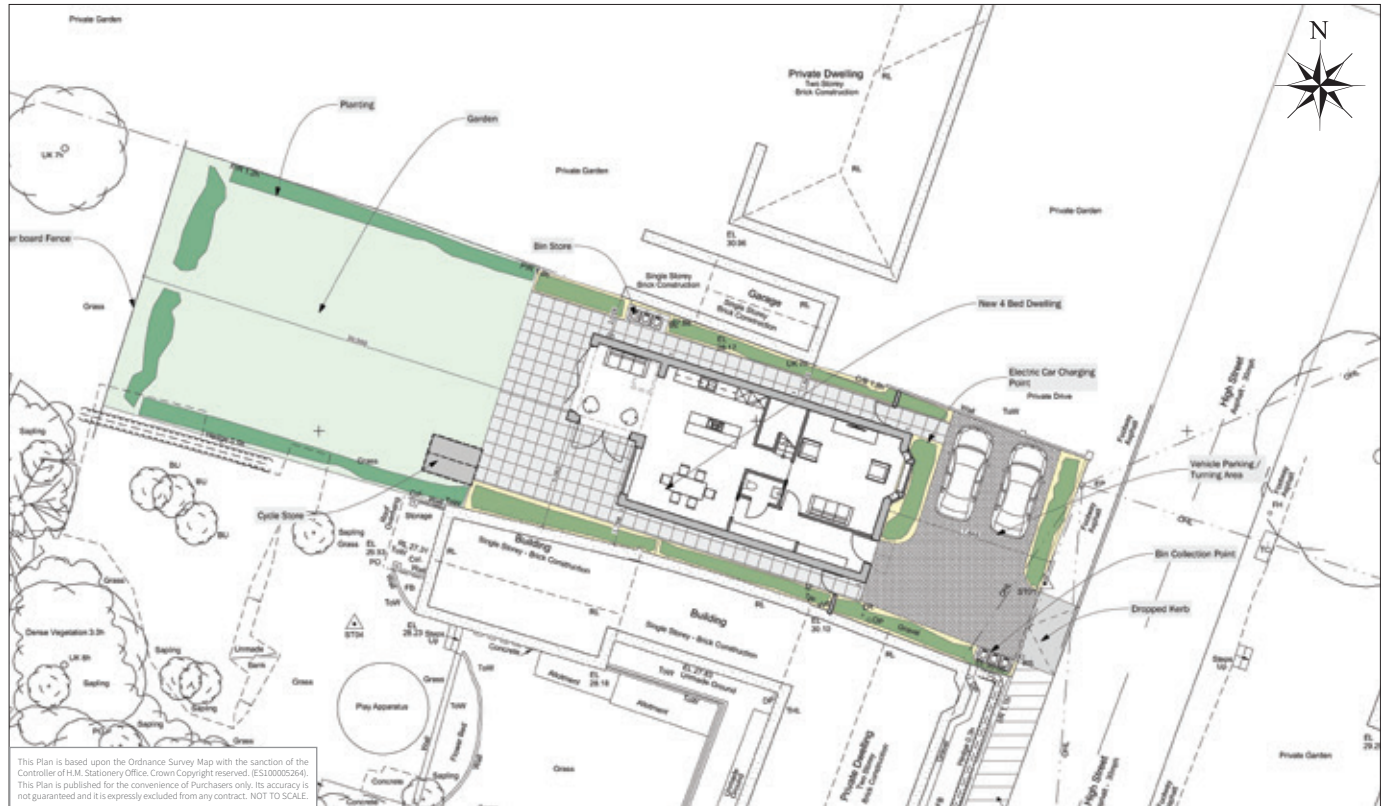

The village of Great Paxton is a popular village lying 2 miles north of the market town of St Neots, 4 miles to the south of Huntingdon town and 20 miles from the city of Cambridge. The village offers a Public House, Church, a community convenience store, the well-regarded Church of England Primary School and local shops with further amenities and employment opportunities in both St Neots and Huntingdon.

The village has an appealing range of both period properties and country houses together with more contemporary homes.

The village is well situated with convenient road access to the A1 and into London via the main East Coast rail line, with services direct to King's Cross within an hour from St Neots. There are also easy links into Cambridge with the newly opened A14 resulting in improved journey times.

THE SITE

The site is situated on the High Street in the highly desirable village location with an area of approximately 0.11 acres (0.05 hectares). The site, which forms part of the garden to 58 High Street, Great Paxton, is of predominantly level ground with mature boundary hedging along the north boundary.
