LOCATION

This superb property is located in a spectacular setting in one of the most beautiful parts of England. It lies close to the waters edge in the heart of Cawsand, in a pretty Conservation Area.

The beach is only 75 yards away, from here and also from the South West Coast Path one can enjoy views across the bay to Fort Picklecombe, the Mount Edgcombe Estate, Plymouth Breakwater, the City of Plymouth and Dartmoor on the horizon. The constant passage of commercial, naval and pleasure craft around the bay and in the entrance to Plymouth, makes this an extraordinary, distracting and inspirational outlook.

The villages of Kingsand and Cawsand both have a welcoming community, are home to the Rame Gig Club and are well equipped with a variety of local shops, pubs and restaurants together with a sailing club and other facilities. A pedestrian ferry runs from Cawsand Beach during the Spring/Summer season giving direct access to the historic Barbican district of Plymouth. The Rame Peninsula is relatively little known, often described as 'Cornwall's forgotten corner', forming part of the Cornwall Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty with quiet beaches and outlined by the South West Coastal Path. The Mount Edgcombe Country Park, an 800 acre area of coastal woodland and open hillsides, is possibly one of the most beautiful and varied locations of Cornwall, lies on the edge of the village. The Cremyll Ferry runs a year round pedestrian ferry to Plymouth providing a very popular commuting and tourist link.
