LOCATION

Heskyn Mill Cottage is in a convenient location in open countryside but with straightforward access to the A38. The property lies adjacent to the River Tiddy with long frontage forming the southern boundary of the paddock and garden, there is an abundance of natural flora and fauna with the property being within an Area of Great Landscape Value and just outside western boundary of the Tamar Valley Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

Tideford lies in rolling Cornish countryside on the north side of the Port Eliot Estate, home to the famous Port Eliot Festival, about five miles west of Saltash and the Tamar Bridge. The village includes a renowned traditional butchers, Montessori nursery school, public house of excellent repute, restaurant, children's playground and a community centre. The A38, which passes through the village, provides excellent access to Plymouth and all parts of the region. There is a regular bus service through the village to Plymouth and neighbouring towns.

The nearby villages of St Germans and Landrake, about two miles away, have primary schools (St Germans Ofsted "Good" and Landrake Ofsted "Outstanding"), whilst St Germans also includes a sailing club and main line railway station with commuter service to Plymouth and beyond (Plymouth to London Paddington 3 hours). The town of Saltash has a Waitrose Store on its northern outskirts. St Mellion International Golf Resort, the South Cornish Coast at Whitsand Bay and the wide expanse of Bodmin Moor are all within a short drive.
