LOCATION

The property lies in an elevated position within a prized and well established beachside residential setting close to Plaidy Beach. Parts of the neighbouring coastline are in the ownership of the National Trust. With almost direct access to the beach and the South West Coast Path the location will suit those seeking to pursue the seaside lifestyle. The quiet Plaidy Beach has a slipway and provides a superb environment for bathing, kayaking and snorkelling, in addition, Looe's main beach, the banjo pier and bustling harbourside lie within walking distance.

Local amenities at the Barbican include a Spar shop with a post office, a primary school, secondary school (both rated "good" by Ofsted), a fish bar, a baker, a hairdresser, and an NHS dentist. The historic town of Looe has a working fishing harbour, boasts a thriving tourist industry and is also popular with boating enthusiasts. The town provides a wide range of shopping and community facilities, together with award winning restaurants. On the edge of the town is a branch line station linking with the main line at Liskeard (Plymouth to London 3 hours).

Golf is available at Portwrinkle, St Mellion International Golf Resort, or Looe Bindown. The sailing waters of the area are favoured by yachtsmen and deep water moorings are available on the Rivers Lynher and Tamar at St Germans, Saltash and Fowey/Polruan. Saltash has a Waitrose store and the city of Plymouth offers an abundance of facilities centred around the historic and fascinating waterfront areas of the Barbican and Hoe. The ferryport provides regular crossings to France and Northern Spain.

The Tamar Valley AONB, the surfing beaches of North Cornwall, historic country houses and many other places of interest lie within an easy drive.

DESCRIPTION

Seymour House (1 and 2) comprises a detached property with panoramic sea and coastline views across Whitsand Bay to the iconic and historic landmark of the Rame Head. The property has a south aspect and comprises a pair of purpose built apartments presenting a versatile arrangement perfect for those seeking a spacious home with income (residential or holiday letting) or for multi-generational living. Our clients currently occupy the ground floor as their home and successfully let the first floor through Airbnb and Booking.com with about 26 weeks let per annum and producing a gross income of about £13,000.

This is a unique opportunity in an enviable coastal setting. Both apartments will be found to be very well presented to a contemporary standard incorporating full double glazing and mains gas central heating with each apartment having separate services enabling independent occupation.
