LOCATION

Jazmine is enviably situated in a prized, near beachside position only a short walk (150 yards) from Seaton Beach, the beautiful riverside pathways of Seaton Countryside Park which has ponds wildlife woodland and play areas and a walking or a cycle track to Hessenford. and the South West Coast Path, all providing boundless leisure opportunities.

Parts of the neighbouring coastline are in the ownership of the National Trust. Seaton provides a popular family beach with RNLI lifeguard station during the summer, good for dog walking and surfing, together with the neighbouring village of Downderry providing a wide range of facilities including pubs, shop, beach café, restaurant, primary school (rated "good" by Ofsted) and a doctors surgery. Downderry appeared in the Sunday Times top ten "Best Places to Live by the sea in recent years and also has a slipway with the ability to keep and launch dinghies by permit, we understand that a community shop will soon be opening too.

There is a regular bus service and the main line railway station can be accessed at St Germans which also has a yacht club and a Montessori Nursery. The A38 provides a quick link to the rest of Cornwall, Plymouth City Centre and beyond. The historic harbourside town of Looe lies about five miles to the west and provides further amenities. The notable sailing waters of the area are favoured by yachtsmen and deep water moorings are available at Saltash and Fowey.
