LOCATION

With no near neighbours, this small estate is well suited to those seeking that rare commodity of privacy and seclusion that this type of setting offers. Wagmuggle, Wuggle and Tallatt are nestled in the Lynher Valley Area of Great Landscape Value, conveniently positioned in the triangle of unspoilt countryside between the historic market towns of Liskeard, Launceston and Callington. Close to the foothills of the romantic landscape of Bodmin Moor and with a clear vista from the house to the majestic Sharptor, the property lies just outside the International Dark Sky Places area noted for clear starlit skies.

The country town of Callington offers the usual day to day amenities including local shops, supermarket, primary and secondary schooling together with leisure amenities and access to the fabulous open spaces of the Kit Hill Country Park. Saltash provides access to a substantial array of amenities including a main line railway station (Plymouth to London Paddington 3 hours), Waitrose supermarket, banks, hospital, secondary education, gym and swimming facilities, with similar facilities in the historic market town of Liskeard.

The University City of Plymouth lies within a straightforward commute and has a long and historic waterfront with a comprehensive range of premier retail outlets, entertainment and dining establishments together with a renowned teaching hospital at Derriford and the Nuffield Private Hospital. In addition the renowned St Mellion International Golf Resort is about seven miles away, also, both the South Cornish Coast and the wide expanses of Bodmin Moor with notable features including the Cheesewring, The Hurlers and Siblyback Lake are within a short drive and present wonderful opportunities for outdoor enthusiasts and equestrians.

DESCRIPTION

Wagmuggle comprises a unique country property with potential, currently used as a principal residence with two holiday lets the property may equally be suited to those requiring multi-generational living space.
