Located on this popular turning on the north side of Hampstead Garden
Suburb is this gorgeous mock Tudor 5 double bedroom detached family home.

Presented in very good condition, this stunning property features open plan style living accommodation on the ground floor, with pocket doors leading into a separate family/playroom. A fabulous kitchen occupies the rear of the house with Gaggenau appliances, a central island and a walk-in pantry. There is a well-equipped utility room, guest WC and two sets of large double doors, leading out onto a magnificent, double plot size, south-facing rear garden that is unique at almost 200ft.

The first floor offers an impressive landing with 4 double bedrooms all with fitted wardrobes. The principal suite is generous with expansive views over the picturesque garden and a well-proportioned ensuite bathroom. The top floor comprises a large 5th bedroom, with an ensuite shower, and a separate office.

Brookland primary school is within a stone's throw and the amenities of the Market Place and East Finchley station are all within a short walk.
