MID TERRACED HOUSE...

Just a stone's throw away from Titchfield Park, this mid-terraced house presents an enticing opportunity in the heart of Hucknall. Boasting a prime location, Hucknall town centre beckons with its plethora of shops and eateries, merely a short drive away. Commuters will appreciate the excellent transport links via tram, train, bus, or car, facilitating seamless travel experiences. Ideal for a diverse range of buyers, this well-maintained residence exudes warmth and comfort throughout its interior. Step inside to discover a generously proportioned living space seamlessly connected to a fitted kitchen, complete with convenient access to the cellar for additional storage. Ascend to the first floor, where two bedrooms await, accompanied by a three-piece bathroom suite. Beyond the confines of the house, the property extends its appeal with off-street parking at the front, ensuring convenience for residents and guests alike. Venture to the rear to uncover an enclosed garden, featuring a patio area, with courtesy lighting, a gravelled area, and a planted border with established trees. Ensuring privacy and security, a fence-panelled boundary encloses the garden, while gated access provides ease of entry.
