NO UPWARD CHAIN...

This semi-detached home, offered with no upward chain, presents a fantastic opportunity for first-time buyers, couples wanting to downsize or investors. Situated in a well-connected area in close proximity to various local amenities such as shops and boasts of easy transport links via the bus and tram, this home combines practicality with comfortable spaces. Upon entering, you are greeted by an inviting entrance hall that leads to a cosy living room. The living room is enhanced by a square bay window. Moving through the ground floor, the fitted kitchen offers a functional layout and flows seamlessly into the bright conservatory. The conservatory, with double French doors that open to the rear garden, is a perfect spot for relaxing. On the first floor, you'll find two well-proportioned bedrooms, each offering comfort and versatility, whether as a sleeping area, a home office, or a guest room. The three-piece bathroom suite on this level with all the essential amenities. Outside, the property offers both convenience and charm. The front features a gravelled area and a driveway leading to a garage with an up-and-over door, providing easy access from the driveway as well as a rear door that opens directly into the garden. This garage space includes ample storage, making it ideal for tools, outdoor equipment, or additional belongings. The rear garden is fully enclosed with a lawn, a gravelled border, and a patio area perfect for outdoor dining or relaxation. Courtesy lighting security, while the fence-panelled boundary ensures privacy, making the garden a peaceful retreat for enjoying time outdoors.
