Guide price £425,000 Leasehold

23 Eleanor House 232 London Road

St. Albans, AL1 1NR

A beautifully presented and generously proportioned first-floor, two bedroom apartment with a balcony, offering approximately 820sq.ft./76sq.m, with bright, stylish living space, ideally suited for comfortable retirement living. Located within Eleanor House, a highly regarded McCarthy & Stone Retirement Living PLUS development, the property is exclusively available to residents aged 70 and over.

The apartment provides excellent natural light throughout, and includes lift access to all floors. Designed for ease and independence, the development also offers peace of mind with a secure entry system and 24-hour CCTV.

Eleanor House is part of McCarthy & Stone's PLUS range, which offers independent living with the reassurance of additional care and support, tailored to individual needs. A dedicated on-site team, led by an estates manager, is available to arrange flexible care packages, with homeowners receiving one hour of domestic assistance per week as part of the service charge. Additional support services, such as cleaning, can be arranged by appointment.

Communal facilities include a welcoming homeowners' lounge for socialising with neighbours and visiting family, a chef-run restaurant providing freshly prepared meals daily, and a laundry room equipped with washing machines and tumble dryers. Externally, residents can enjoy attractively maintained gardens designed for relaxation.

The development is conveniently located on London Road, within one mile of the city centre and close to the mainline train station offering direct services to St Pancras International. Regular bus services to both the station and city centre are available via nearby stops on London Road.

This apartment represents a rare opportunity to enjoy a safe, sociable, and low-maintenance lifestyle with the flexibility of extra care if ever required.
