Brynamman is a village on the south side of the Black Mountain, part of the Brecon Beacons National Park, which has a beautiful driving road often used by Top Gear. The village is split into Upper Brynamman and Lower Brynamman by the River Amman, which is also the boundary between the counties of Carmarthenshire and Neath Port Talbot. Ruins of stone dwellings (possibly prehistoric), an early type of lime kiln and rectangular medieval buildings found on the mountain show that people have lived in this area for a long time.
