An incredible opportunity to purchase this three double-bedroom detached bungalow in the hamlet of Idole, on the outskirts of Carmarthen Town. This property benefits from driveway parking, an external garage, and a rear garden along with beautiful countryside views. It offers versatile, flexible living and can be set up to suit the needs of its new owners, either as a wonderful family home or as the perfect retirement bungalow.

The property briefly comprises; an entrance hall, dining room, living room with patio doors leading out to a raised sitting area to enjoy the countryside views, kitchen and separate utility room with door leading out to the rear garden, WC. Further down the hallway is the three double bedrooms and family bathroom with separate shower and bath.

Externally the property benefits from ample off-road parking, and a detached garage with an electric roll-up door. The rear garden is laid to lawn with a terraced patio area from the living room and a further patio area to the end of the garden, located behind the garage. The garden has wonderful views of the fields to the rear and offers the perfect spot for reading the newspaper with your morning coffee or al fresco dining.

The County town of Carmarthen lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales, boasting a strong Roman heritage dating back to AD c75. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of its mouth at Carmarthen Bay, the town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, the Carmarthen Campus of The University of Wales, Trinity Saint David, and The West Wales General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary schools and two secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English. The former cattle market in the heart of the town has undergone massive regeneration and is now the new shopping centre, with Vue Cinema complex, restaurants, bars, and a multi-storey car park.
