The County town of Carmarthen lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales. One of towns most famous early residents was Merlin the Magician. The Welsh name for the town, "Caerfyrddin", means Merlin's Fort and many believe the town was named after King Arthurs wizard. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of its mouth at Carmarthen Bay, Carmarthen has been a market town since Roman times and the indoor market sells everything from arts and crafts to local food and drink. On Wednesdays and Saturdays, the outdoor market also comes to town. Beyond the market, Carmarthen is full of interesting independent shops as well as St Catherines Shopping Centre which also include restaurants and Vue Cinema.

The town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, The University of Wales, Trinity Saint David and Glangwilli General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary schools and two secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English.
