This is a fantastic opportunity to purchase a four, double-bedroom, detached property in the rural location of Bwlch Newydd, yet just a 10-minute drive from the County town of Carmarthen providing everyday amenities and necessities. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate what the property has to offer and the lifestyle you can enjoy whilst living there.

The property briefly comprises; an entrance hall, a living room with a wood burner perfect for cosy evenings, and a dining room which offers a wonderful space to entertain or can be enjoyed every day for family dinners together. The kitchen is located at the rear of the property and also has space for a table and a door leads onto the rear garden. The first floor offers four double bedrooms and a family bathroom. The loft room of this property can be used as storage, a quiet reading nook or a space for the older children to have a den.

Externally the property benefits from off-road parking to the front for multiple vehicles and a detached garage. To the rear of the property, it offers a patio area which makes a wonderful place for relaxing, reading the newspaper with your morning coffee overlooking the river. The main garden is off the side of the property which offers a decking area leading out from the living room and lawned area, giving the children a spot to play or for the dog to stretch their legs, a path leading down to further decking area and summer house. which has the stream running alongside.

Bwlch Newydd is a small hamlet on the outskirts of the County town Carmarthen. The County town of Carmarthen lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales, boasting a strong Roman heritage dating back to AD c75. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of its mouth at Carmarthen Bay, the town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, the Carmarthen Campus of The University of Wales, Trinity Saint David and The West Wales General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary schools and two secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English. The former cattle market in the heart of the town has undergone massive regeneration and the new shopping centre now houses most high street names, an Apollo Cinema complex, restaurants, bars and a multi-storey car park. The town is also served by direct inter city trains from West Wales to London
