Nestled in the picturesque village of Capel Dewi, Carmarthen, this traditional family detached house offers a perfect blend of modern living and rural charm. Boasting two reception rooms and four double bedrooms, this property provides ample space for comfortable living. With two bathrooms and a double garage, convenience is key in this home.

One of the standout features of this property is the expansive 2.15 acres (approximately) of garden and woodland, offering a tranquil retreat right at your doorstep. Imagine enjoying your morning coffee while taking in the serene rural views that surround the property.

Parking will never be an issue with space for up to eight vehicles, making hosting gatherings a breeze. Additionally, the outbuilding, currently registered as a business, presents a fantastic opportunity to be converted into additional accommodation, subject to planning permission.

The contemporary design of the house adds a touch of elegance to the property, making it a truly desirable place to call home. Whether you're looking for a peaceful countryside escape or a spacious family home, this property on Capel Dewi Road has it all.

Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of its mouth at Carmarthen Bay, Carmarthen has been a market town since Roman times and the indoor market sells everything from arts and crafts to local food and drink. On Wednesdays and Saturdays, the outdoor market also comes to town. Beyond the market, Carmarthen is full of interesting independent shops as well as St Catherines Shopping Centre which also include restaurants and Vue Cinema. The town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, The University of Wales, Trinity Saint David and Glangwilli General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary schools and two secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English.
