A fantastic opportunity to purchase a wonderful detached house, nestled in the picturesque town of Kidwelly. Blending modern comfort with timeless elegance, the property boasts an ideal location and an array of desirable features. South-west facing, the house enjoys sunlight in the garden throughout the day and has beautiful views over the castle.

Kidwelly, famous for its Norman Castle which is located next to the property, was recently named one of the best places to live in Wales. The town offers a wide range of everyday amenities, and easy transport links and is close to beaches, Pembrey Country Park and Ffos Las racecourse.

The house offers an appealing combination of traditional charm and contemporary living, with accommodation arranged over two floors. The ground floor features a welcoming hallway that leads to three reception rooms. These include a sitting room, a living room, and a library or dining room with built-in shelving and storage. The kitchen/dining room is fitted with units and offers direct access to the garden.

Upstairs, the property boasts three double bedrooms. The bathroom is equipped with a roll-top bath, a washbasin with storage, a traditional high-level WC, and a glazed shower enclosure. An attic runs the length of the house, accessible via a pull-down ladder.

The gardens surrounding the house include a deck, two patio areas, a pond, a greenhouse, a polytunnel, two sheds, and two log pods. There is off-road parking for multiple vehicles. The raised garden at the front is intersected by steps leading to the front door.

This property offers a unique opportunity to experience tranquil countryside living, paired with modern conveniences, all within a short distance of Kidwelly's rich history and vibrant community.
