Welcome to this charming property located in the village of Penybont, Carmarthen. The property boasts two reception rooms, two bedrooms, and one bathroom, offering a cosy and inviting living space for you to enjoy.

Situated on a generous plot of land, this property is a dream for nature lovers, with 1 acre (approximately) of woodland and garden right at your doorstep. Additionally, there is the option to acquire a further three acres (approximately) of grazing land through separate negotiation, providing you with ample space to explore and unwind in the great outdoors.

The two-bedroom farmhouse exudes potential, awaiting your personal touch to modernize and transform it into the home of your dreams. With air source heating and solar panels already in place, you can enjoy eco-friendly living while reducing your carbon footprint.

Don't miss this fantastic opportunity to own a property with land in a tranquil setting. Embrace the rural lifestyle and create lasting memories in this idyllic retreat. Contact us today to arrange a viewing and take the first step towards making this property your own.

Penybont is a small rural community located a short drive from the County town of Carmarthen. The village has a fantastic community centre that offers many activities as well as a Church and Chapel. The local Primary School in Trelech is a Welsh Medium Primary School and is only around 3 miles away from Penybont.

The County town of Carmarthen, which is around 10 miles away, lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales, boasting a strong Roman heritage dating back to AD c75. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of its mouth at Carmarthen Bay, the town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, the Carmarthen Campus of The University of Wales, Trinity Saint David and The West Wales General Hospital. The town is well served by numerous primary and secondary schools offering education through the medium of Welsh and English.
