The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

This beautiful character riverside cottage, is situated in the pretty village setting of Brechfa, Carmarthenshire. Boasting an abundance of charm throughout, the property would make a brilliant family home. With lovely countryside walks right on your doorstep, the character cottage would also be ideal for nature lovers or those looking to live in a semi-rural location. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate its setting!

Upon entering the cottage into the first of two reception rooms, this space is currently used as a formal dining room, ideal for entertaining guests. Steps lead down into the modern gallery kitchen, which enjoys views overlooking the mature gardens. The living room is the heart of the home and features a fire place with log burning stove. The ground floor also accommodates a utility room and a home office which is accessed externally. The first floor provides a family bathroom, and four double bedrooms, two of which have Juliet balconies overlooking the garden and river.

Externally, there is driveway parking to the side, with gates opening into a gravelled courtyard offering further parking space and a detached garage/workshop. The property is set within mature gardens, home to a variety of plants, trees and shrubs. Ideal for any keen gardener or for those who love the outdoors, the idyllic setting is a must see. With a greenhouse, summer house, there is also a patio area also providing space for outside seating. You can really envision those summer evening relaxing, listening to the river, and enjoying the summer sun.

The property sits in the vibrant community village of Brechfa within the beautiful Cothi Valley with Brechfa Forest on the doorstep which is used by mountain bikers, horse riders, walkers etc. Within the village is a pub/restaurant, church and church hall where many community functions are held. Daily bus service (and school buses) to Carmarthen which is approximately 10 miles (20 minutes drive) by A and B roads.
