A fantastic opportunity to purchase a distinctive four bedroom home in the sought-after village of Crosshands. With excellent access to the M4 and a layout that offers flexibility for family life or home business use, this property is packed with potential and charm.

Step inside to a striking entrance hall that immediately sets a welcoming tone. Two reception rooms provide plenty of options for relaxing or entertaining, while the open-plan kitchen and dining area forms the heart of the home—ideal for both everyday living and hosting. A cloakroom, W/C, and inner hallway add to the functionality of the ground floor.

Upstairs, there are four double bedrooms, with further development potential. A family bathroom serves this level, with the master bedroom offering space for en-suite shower room. The second floor offers a full attic room with head height and floor space that invites further development, subject to planning consent.

The front of the home is enclosed and driveway with capacity for multiple vehicles, including caravans or trailers. To the rear, the garden is mainly laid to lawn—ideal for children, pets, or outdoor entertaining—and includes a brick-built storage shed.

One of the standout features of this property is the outbuilding to the side, previously used as a veterinary practice. It has been adapted to include a utility area, a multi-use storage space —perfect for those running a business from home or in need of extra workspace.

This property combines character, flexibility, and practicality in a well-connected village setting. Whether you're looking for a forever home or a base with scope for work and lifestyle, this property is well worth a look.
