Situated in a prime elevated position overlooking the coastal village of Ferryside, this semi-detached home boasts distance views over the surrounding landscape and estuary. The property offer versatile accommodation and would make a great family home, or multi generational living. Set over three storeys, a lower ground floor offers great development potential offering various possibilities.

Upon entering the property on the ground floor, the accommodation comprises; entrance hallway, open plan living/dining room, a kitchen fitted with a range of appliances, and a conservatory. A staircase leads down to the lower ground floor, with currently is utilised as additional storage and offers great development potential. Benefiting from its own access, this space would make a great annex with utilities available, and already houses a shower room. The first floor provides a family bathroom with separate w/c, and three bedrooms. The property benefits from UPVC double glazing, (Installed in April 2021) and oil central heating.

Externally, there is ample off road parking for multiple vehicles. A double garage provides additional storage space, and secure parking. A side gate provides easy access up to the rear. A courtyard area provides space for outside seating, and is ideal for entertaining your family and friends in the summer. The mature tiered garden is home to a variety of plants, shrubs and trees.

Ferryside is a beautiful fishing village with a vibrant community spirit. Located within 10 miles of the County town of Carmarthen this village has incomparable views over the Towy Estuary and Llansteffan. With many walks, events and its beautiful beaches, there is always something to do in this delightful village. Ferryside boasts a village shop, pubs and hotels and has a life boat and yacht club. Ferryside has excellent bus links as well as a train station with trains running regularly between Fishguard Harbour and London Paddington
