The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

We Say...

A brilliant opportunity to acquire a substantial detached home, which offers further development potential. Located in the semi-rural village of Pencader, there are many idyllic country walks right on your doorstep. Dating back to 1884, the traditional stone built detached house boasts a wealth of character features, including exposed beams, original flagstones and quarry tile flooring. Benefitting from integral access into the former annex, the property would make the ideal multi-generational family home. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate the sheer size and potential the property has to offer!

With its timeless charm, convenient location, and endless potential, the property offers versatile accommodation throughout. Upon entering the property into the classic kitchen, a door opens into the dining room which features those gorgeous quarry tile flooring, fireplace, and under stairs storage. Leading off the dining room is the third bedroom/reception room, which is currently utilised as a office space. The living room offers the perfect spot for relaxing with family and friends, and is home to a log burning stove, exposed stone, vaulted 'A' frame beams and mezzanine. Providing integral access into the former annex, there is significant potential to create further accommodation for guests and extended family. With two downstairs rooms currently used as a utility space, and storage, a staircase leads up to the two loft rooms.

The first floor accommodates the master suite which provides ample built in storage, and the en-suite bathroom. This impressive space offers potential to create a walk in wardrobe and dressing room. Upstairs also accommodates a second double bedroom and the family bathroom.

Externally, the property is set within delightful mature grounds, which are home to a variety of fruit trees, shrubbery and plants. A lawned walled garden is situated in front of the property and provides an idyllic space for outside seating. You can really envision sitting and enjoying your surrounding, or even dining al fresco during the summer months. A pathway leads from the gated entrance around the front of the property, and provides access to the storage room and outhouse, which is currently utilised as a log store. Across the lane the garden continues, which is also home to a green house, the detached garage and Dutch hay barn with workshop. Also offering off road parking, there is also further on street parking available.

The village of Pencader is situated 10.2 miles north of Carmarthen and is only 30 mins drive to the coast. The village benefits from village shops, cafe and a primary school. The towns of Llandysul, Llanybydder and Lampeter are also in easy reach. The nearby County town of Carmarthen lays claim to being the oldest town in Wales, boasting a strong Roman heritage dating back to AD c75. Situated on the River Towy eight miles north of its mouth at Carmarthen Bay, the town is the location of the headquarters of Dyfed Powys Police, the Carmarthen Campus of The University of Wales, Trinity Saint David and The West Wales General Hospital. The town is also served by direct intercity trains from West Wales to London.
