Summary

Boasting gorgeous views over the Pendine coastline and countryside, this contemporary detached house would make a brilliant family home. Designed with modern living in mind, the upside down style property captures those idyllic sea views at every opportunity. Viewing is highly recommended to appreciate setting!

A truly rare opportunity; the property is situated in an elevated position, on the highly sought after cul-de-sac of Llygad - yr- haul. Upon entering the property on the ground floor, the four double bedrooms lead off the hallway. The master bedroom features built in wardrobes providing ample storage, and a modern en-suite shower room. Further accommodation includes the stylish family bathroom with walk in shower, and bath tub, and a utility room. A staircase leads up to the first floor landing/cwtch area, dining room and w/c . The contemporary gloss kitchen is fitted with a range of modern appliances, and features an island with breakfast bar. The kitchen really is the heart of the home, with bi-fold doors opening out onto the balcony. This space is ideal for entertaining your family and friends, while enjoying those idyllic views. The living room is fitted with a log burning stove, and leads through into a second sitting area.

Externally, the property is situated on a private road, and offers a low maintenance garden, with patio areas and a small lawned area. A detached garage provides secure parking, and is great for additional storage.

Situated on the edge of the Carmarthenshire, Pembrokeshire border in West Wales, Pendine boasts a 7 mile beach stretching from Gilmore Point to Laugharne Sands where Malcolm Campbell and J.G. Parry-Thomas set the world land speed record five times between 1924 and 1927. The 870 miles coastal path runs mostly along the clifftops for 4 miles from Pendine, offering glorious views towards both the Gower Peninsula and Tenby and Caldey Island, before reaching the beautiful cove of Amroth and the border with Pembrokeshire.

DIRECTIONS

Leaving the Tenby Office follow the A478 to the Kilgetty roundabout. Then follow the A477 until you reach the turning for Red Roses. Turn right for Red Roses, then right for Pendine. Follow the B4316 to Pendine. As you come into Pendine, as your start to go down Pendine Hill, turn left onto Llygad Yr Haul. Continue towards end on cul-de-sac, where the property is on the left.
