Trade Winds is a very well presented terrace house located in the sought after area of St Mary's Street. Whilst the property is just yards from the town centre and esplanade, it is nestled down a private pathway away from the street ensuring privacy. With the added appeal of no onward chain, this property is a hidden gem that would make a fanstatic 'lock up and leave' second home or holiday let.

The layout of the property briefly comprises of an entrance hall, kitchen with modern fitted units and integral cooker and hob, an open plan lounge/diner, a shower room and a bedroom with en-suite WC. A feature spiral staircase leads up to the first floor, with a second bedroom with en-suite bathroom and a study/dressing room. Views of the sea can be enjoyed from the upstairs rooms. The property is served by double glazing and gas central heating.

Externally, there is a patio seating area to the front of the property, which is gated for security and provides a lovely place to sit out on a sunny afternoon.

A hidden gem in the centre of Tenby - this property must be viewed in order to fully appreciate its fantastic location!

Tenby is a popular seaside resort with many shops, restaurants, amenities and its famous championship golf course. The beautiful coast and countryside of the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park provide further leisure and tourism opportunities, with many more sandy beaches within easy driving distance. Slightly further afield is the well known Pendine Sands and the Town of Carmarthen with its shopping precincts and Cinema, Main Line Railway Station and excellent links to the M4 and the East.

DIRECTIONS

From the Tenby office proceed on foot out of the office and take the first left onto the cobbled streets, following the road around the corner. Take the 2nd left onto St Mary's Street and proceed down the road, there the property will be found on the right hand side.
