The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A rare opportunity to purchase a semi-detached 3 bedroom house situated in a sought-after coastal hamlet of Porthgain an idyllic location within walking distance of the harbour.

This property benefits from a living room, kitchen/diner, three bedrooms (one situated on the ground floor) and a downstairs family bathroom. The property benefits from oil fired central heating and uPVC double glazing. To the rear of the property is an elevated rear garden with lawns which backs onto open fields and views of the surrounding countryside to the front. The property also boasts plenty of parking to the front. Given its fantastic coastal location it would either make the perfect family home, holiday let or long-term purchase.

Porthgain is a small coastal hamlet on the north coast of St Davids Peninsula, once a small commercial harbour used for exporting stone from the nearby quarry, Porthgain is now a very popular thanks to a great pub, a super cafe/restaurant and excellent art galleries. DIRECTIONS

From our Haverfordwest Office, take the B4330 and follow for approximately 10 miles into the village of Croesgoch. Go straight over the A487 in the direction of Llanrhian and straight over the Llanrhian crossroads (towards Porthgain). Continue until you reach the village, then turn immediately right, then bear right again and the property will be found on your left hand side at the end of the road.
