BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY

We are delighted to offer the opportunity to lease commercial premises in a prime location within the County Town of Haverfordwest. The building is a Grade II Listed property with character and riverside views.

The Property is situated within a busy shopping area part of the town just off Bridge Street and Victoria Place. Pembrokeshire County Council are investing substantial amount of money into buildings along the Riverside including the former Ocky White building, the former market building which now houses the library and cafe. Recent announcement regarding a footbridge across the river, there is also plans for a new car park/transport hub.

There are a variety of different businesses situated within walking distance, there are steps to Victoria Place which fronts onto the main road through the town, the building can be seen easily when traveling through the town by car.

There is an opportunity to lease all, or part of the building and lease terms start from £12,500 per annum.

Contact us for further information and to arrange a viewing of the premises.
