The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

Victoria Cottage is a detached cottage located in the edge of Roch village, enjoying coastal views to the west. Dating back to around 1850 and originally built to accommodate the workers of the nearby Victoria Inn, the property would benefits from some modernization but retains many historical features and charm. The layout of the property briefly comprises of an entrance porch, living room with open fire and an open plan kitchen/dining room to the ground floor. On the first floor are three double bedrooms and a family bathroom.

Externally, there is a cottage garden to the front of the property, enclosed by a low level boundary wall and pedestrian gate, The views of the coast can be enjoyed from all Western aspects within the property.

This property boasts endless potential and is in a prime position for access to the beautiful St David's peninsula. Viewing is highly recommended!

The village has a public house and a popular primary school, all within walking distance. There is a regular bus service to Haverfordwest with its excellent shops, Solva with its pretty harbour and good eating places only 4 miles away and St David's with its wonderful Cathedral and old Bishop's Palace only 7 miles away. Roch is a thriving community, which also benefits from a Parish Church, and Community Hall. It is just 1.7 miles away from the famous surfing sandy beach at Newgale, and the cove at Nolton Haven. It is a convenient location for pleasant walks inland to Brandy Brook Valley and Roch Mill is the last remaining of five water mills.

DIRECTIONS

From our Haverfordwest Office, proceed up High Street and follow the one-way system down Barn Street. Take the first left after Lidl. At the roundabout take the first left onto Thomas Parry Way. Take the second left at the next roundabout. Proceed on this road for approximately six miles. When you arrive in Roch, you will find the property on the right-hand side at the junction onto Roch Hill. What 3 Words: inert.conductor.practical
