The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

A most charming, traditional Welsh stone cottage, set in the rural village of Llandeloy, not far from the beautiful sandy beach at Newgale. Ty Bet offers great investment opportunity and business potential, would make a successful holiday let or long term let, set in a tranquil countryside setting, whilst being so close to the coast. Quaint and full of character, the layout of the property briefly comprises; hallway, downstairs double bedroom, family bathroom, modern, fitted, country style kitchen with a selection of contemporary wall and base units and complimentary work surfaces, and a dining area. On the first floor is an open plan living area with wood-burning stove, and a further double bedroom with wardrobe space. The property is in an excellent decorative order, with electric heating and double glazing.

Externally, A grass lane to the side of the adjacent cottage leads to a timber gate, which gives access to a graveled area, and timber shed, and a step up to the paved patio seating area (directly to the rear of the dining/sun lounge).

With the added appeal of No Onward Chain this cottage must be viewed in order to fully appreciate.

Llandeloy is a small rural village, situated in the heart of the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park, which offers wonderful opportunities for boating or 'bucket and spade' enthusiasts as well as walkers. The long sandy beach of Newgale is approx 4 miles away, as is the harbour village of Solva, with its restaurants, cafes, public houses, shops etc. St Davids is approx 7 miles away, with its famous Cathedral, Bishops Palace, and a good range of amenities including restaurants, galleries, shops, supermarket, chemist, doctors and dentists surgeries etc.
