We Say...

Stunning 19th-Century Coach House Conversion.

Nestled in a picturesque rural setting, this beautifully converted 19th-century coach house seamlessly blends historic charm with modern luxury. Set within 2 acres with an additional 10 acre field available by separate negotiation, this five-bedroom family home offers an idyllic countryside lifestyle while being part of a charming cluster of sensitively renovated period buildings.

This exceptional home has been thoughtfully transformed to the highest standards while retaining its original character, including stunning features from its origins as a coach house and stable block for Penty Parc Manor. Features include full height track doors, flagstone and cobblestone flooring and original iron stable stalls. The interior provides generous accommodation, the layout is currently configured as five double bedrooms (the master with en-suite boasting a sunken bath), three reception rooms, an open plan kitchen/diner with bi-fold doors and glass lanterns, office/gym, utility room, boot room and four bath/shower rooms. It's versatile layout making it perfect for family living and would suit any dynamic. To compliment family life further, the property is served by fibre broadband.

Externally, a double garage and ample off-road parking offer plenty of space for vehicles. The property also includes a detached home office/ studio, perfect for home working. The surrounding grounds include an established garden with a feature pond, decked seating area, expansive lawns amongst wooded areas which are rife with seasonal flowers such as snowdrops, bluebells and mature shrubs and roses. The field is accessed a little further down the lane, measuring approximately 10 acres, perfect for housing animals for grazing.

This is a rare opportunity to own a character-filled, move-in-ready home in a stunning countryside location. Viewings are highly recommended
