9 Anchor Down is a detached house designed with an 'upside down' layout, located in the sought after residential area of Upper Solva. This property sits in an elevated position boasting some of the most spectacular views that the county has to offer!

The layout of the property briefly comprises of an entrance hall, living room, dining room, kitchen, hallway, entrance porch and WC on the first floor, with doors from the living room and kitchen leading out onto a balcony seating area to maximise on the incredible views. On the ground floor are four bedrooms, a family bathroom, separate WC and shower room, and a utility room. The property is served by oil fired heating and would benefit from modernisation but offers versatile space to create an enviable home.

Externally, the property offers two driveways to the front and side, both gated for security. There is a detached garage offering dry parking or handy work/storage space. The garden is tiered and offers various seating areas to enjoy the view, and there is a lawned garden to the front of the property too.

This fantastic property has huge potential - viewing is a must!!

The sought after harbour village of Solva, in the heart of the Pembrokeshire Coast National Park, offers restaurants, cafes, public houses, shops, galleries, post office, doctors' surgery, and primary school. It is some 12 miles North West of the county town of Haverfordwest and 3 miles from St Davids, with its famous Cathedral, and is within easy reach of some of Pembrokeshire's most popular sandy beaches, such as Newgale and Whitesands. The nearby St Davids Airfield has been landscaped to provide a wonderful and well-used public amenity for walking, cycling or horseriding, and the Pembrokeshire Coast Path provides 180 miles of beautiful scenery.

DIRECTIONS

From Haverfordwest, take the A487 towards St Davids, passing through Simpson Cross, Roch, Newgale and Penycwm. On reaching Solva, proceed through Lower Solva and follow the road up the hill. After passing the Royal George pub, turn right into Anchor Down, and the driveway for the property will be found on the left-hand side.
