The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

An opportunity to purchase a chain free detached four-bedroom bungalow with direct sea views .

The layout of the property briefly comprises of an entrance porch, hallway, living room/diner, kitchen, three bedrooms, a bathroom and shower room. Adjoining the property is a self contained unit offering a fourth bedroom, shower room and a rear porch/utility area, offering the potential for conversion into a kitchen to create an annexe. The property is served by double glazing and oil fired central heating.

Externally, the property features off-road parking capacity suitable for multiple vehicles and grounds that are accessible from both the front and rear. To the front is a seating area leading off from the French doors in the living room, allowing for fantastic sea views. To the rear, a low maintenance garden backs onto fields and enjoys added privacy and a pleasant outlook from the rear facing rooms.

This property may appeal to those seeking a chain-free purchase in a setting with uninterrupted outlooks toward the coastline. Viewing is highly recommended!

Golwg Y Cwm is situated in the small hamlet of Pen-y-Cwm, approximately 10 miles west of the county town of Haverfordwest, 3 miles from the picturesque harbour village of Solva and 6 miles from the Cathedral City of St Davids. From its elevated position one can enjoy superb views down the valley towards Pen-y-Cwm beach and St Brides Bay. The Pembrokeshire coast path offers 186 miles of stunning walks and scenery, and the famous long sandy expanse of Newgale beach at the bottom of the hill attracts surfers and swimmers from far and wide.

DIRECTIONS

From our office in Haverfordwest, take the A487 towards St Davids, passing through Pelcomb, Simpson Cross, Roch and passing through Newgale, continue up the hill and down into Penycwm. The chapel will be found on the right hand side. What3Words reference: regarding.shippers.deduct
