The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

This detached bungalow is located down a private lane, nestled within the stunning Pembrokeshire Coast National Park. Positioned just a few hundred yards from the sandy beach and the celebrated Pembrokeshire Coast Path, this property benefits from one of the most desirable coastal locations in the area.

The layout of the property briefly comprises of an entrance hall, living room, kitchen, four bedrooms, one with an en-suite shower room, and a family bathroom. A door from the kitchen leads through to a workshop area, with steps leading up to an office, storage room and a generous loft space offering fantastic storage space! Subject to planning permission, the property could be extended into the roof space to provide further living accommodation. The property is served by LPG gas heating and double glazing. The interior would benefit from some modernisation throughout, offering the perfect opportunity to tailor the layout, fixtures and finishes to a contemporary standard.

A short stroll brings you to Nolton Haven beach, a peaceful sheltered cove ideal for walking, beach-combing and coastal walks along the National Trail. The Pembrokeshire Coast Path runs right through the village, granting seamless access to neighbouring beaches such as Newgale and Broad Haven. Nolton Haven boasts a quintessential south-Wales coastal village charm, with a local pub, farm shop all within the small community.

This home is offered with no onward chain. With its direct proximity to the beach and potential to refurbish and modernise, the bungalow represents an outstanding coastal opportunity for those wishing to create their ideal seaside residence or holiday retreat.
