The Agent that goes the Extra Mile

An exciting opportunity to acquire the freehold of this versatile mixed use premises, ideally situated in the vibrant centre of Cardigan. Currently operating as a florist and gift shop, the property also has a rich history, having previously been a bakery so offers potential for a variety of uses.

The premises benefits from an existing alcohol licence, electric heating throughout, and accommodation above. This would make a great investment opportunity.

The accommodation briefly comprises: a welcoming shop front with large display windows, offering ample space to showcase a variety of products and attract foot traffic. Beyond the main retail area lies a practical office/workspace, complete with fitted worktops and a sink — ideal for preparation or administrative use. Further along, there is additional storage and work space, including a room that still houses the former commercial fridge and freezers, providing potential for use in food-related businesses or cold storage, if required.

There is also a further office space, along with a generously sized 18'8" x 29'1" workshop area — offering ample room for preparation, or general workspace needs. This area includes a useful sink and retains the original bakery ovens. A hallway leads to the rear of the property, giving access out onto William Street.
